Dear Mr. Dodge:

I am answering your letter of 9 December to Mr. Dulles in which you recommended that [] receive a promotion. The matter has been carefully reviewed by our Supergrade Review Board, and I am happy to inform you that favorable action has been taken. Because of certain limitations on the number of supergrades the Agency can carry at any one time, the promotion is necessarily effective for the period of [] service with your Council. I can assure you, as I have [] personally, that when he returns to CIA every effort will be made to find him a position in grade appropriate to his high qualifications.

Mr. Dulles, who has just departed on his vacation, wishes you to know how pleased he is that you have found [] contribution to your work so satisfactory.

Sincerely,

[]

Robert Amory, Jr.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

December 9, 1955

Dear Mr. Dulles:

At the end of May, 1955, you were kind enough to assign to the Council on Foreign Economic Policy staff, Mr. C. [redacted] For some time prior to that, he had been performing a similar service for Mr. Clarence Randall.

You know how highly Mr. Randall valued his services and that it was at Mr. Randall's suggestion that I enlisted him for the Council.

[redacted] has been of outstanding assistance to us not only because of his ability, knowledge and experience but also because of his personal qualities, attitude and cooperation.

I am informed that [redacted] has been in the GS-15 salary classification since 1951 and I strongly recommend you explore every possibility to give him a GS-16 classification. There is no doubt in my mind that he is fully deserving of it.

Lt. Colonel Paul H. Cullen talked to Mr. Amory about this on the telephone and I sincerely hope you will give this your favorable consideration.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Dodge
